Connecticut Community Care, Inc. (CCCI) is a statewide, not-for-profit care management organization dedicated to helping elders and individuals with disabilities live independently at home.

CCCI provides comprehensive and holistic assessments of clients' needs including their medical, social/emotional, financial situation and living environment. Care plans are developed, services and benefits are coordinated and services are monitored and modified as needed for more than 9,000 elders served through the state-sponsored Connecticut Home Care Program for Elders (CHCPE) in more than 124 towns in the Eastern, North Central and Northwestern regions of Connecticut. CCCI contracts with health and social service organizations across the state to provide a comprehensive spectrum of direct care services in the home.

CCCI's private division, Care Management Associates (CMA), offers similar service and telephone consultation statewide to older adults and individuals with disabilities. Care managers are available 24 hours a day, seven days a week.
