

TRIPS 2010

New York Yankee Tour

Saturday, August 14th, 2010

Tour the famous "New" York Yankee Stadium. Enjoy walking through these hallowed grounds. This is a fast paced walking tour. Then off to the Natural History Museum for free time to tour the exhibits.

Cost $95 per adult, $78 per child (11 and under)

Boston Red Sox

Saturday, September 5, 2010

The Boston Red Sox will host the Chicago White Sox in this exciting game. Join us with a no hassle trip to see your team from sections 36 or 37. Bus will leave East Hampton Park & Recreation. Time TBA.

Cost $130 per person

Boston Duck Tour

Saturday, September 11, 2010

It's the ride of your life aboard the Duck-amphibious vehicle that rides on land and becomes a boat in the water. Enjoy a narrated tour by your conDUCKtor. See the gold domed State House, Old North Church, Newbury Street, Back Bay, Trinity Church, Cheers Bar, lovely gardens and all the interesting sites Boston has to offer. Then splash down right into the Charles River for a breathtaking waterside view of Boston. There will be time on your own for shopping and dining at Quincy Market after the tour. Hosted by East Hampton Parks and Recreation. Depart from East Hampton Town Hall at 8:30 am. Price person Adult $77.00, child $70.00 (6-12 years old) Please no children under 6.

Pumpkin Festival

Saturday, October 16, 2010

Celebrate Halloween in Keene, NH. Join us on a bus trip to the pumpkin capital of New England. While in Keene you will get to see over 19,000 hand-carved and decorated creations. The entire family can spend the day downtown with special activities for the kids including a costume parade, a seed spitting and pie eating contest, live music on three stages, face painting, craft booths, lots of food provided by area non-profit and much more. Hosted by Hebron Parks and Recreation Department. Bus leaves the Hebron Town Hall at 8 am. Cost $40 per person.